ASL Interpreter Patrick Galasso

Join Rev. Suzanne Fast for a discussion on "Invisible Disabilities," and how understanding the concept is important to accessibility & inclusion, the Sunday of Memorial Day weekend, 29 May 2022.

The Reverend Suzanne Fast (she/her) is a Unitarian Universalist community minister focusing on disability justice, advocacy, education, and pastoral ministry, primarily through UU Association's EqUUal Access.

She is one of the creators of the Accessibility and Inclusion Ministry Program for congregations and serves on its Coordinating Committee. Rev. Fast is disabled, chronically ill, and neurodivergent. She is affiliated with the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Greater Naples, Florida.

We'd like to line up questions in advance. Interested? Email access@uueugene.org

We'd especially like to hear from vets who identify as having invisible disabilities.
